Romans 2 Overview:

1-11: Paul proves that all are guilty! All will be judged based on our own deeds (6)—you know, the same ones we _____!

12-29: The Jews are not exempt because they _____ the law. The Gentiles are not exempt because they _____ the law.

Rom 2:1-6: _____:

V. 1: We are without excuse because we _____ things that we know are wrong. We know it is wrong because we judge others when they do it.

V2: We are sure that others are _____, and they deserve their judgment.

V3: Do you really think you will _____ the _____ of God?

V4: We can use the merciful space we have been given to _____, or we will...

V5...build up for ourselves wrath against the day of judgment that is based on....

V6.....our _____.

Have you ever been happy when some one _____ gets pulled over?

1. If God asks you, "Did you do the things you knew were wrong? What would you say?"
2. If God is righteous and judges ungodliness and unrighteousness, He must judge our sin. What do you think about that?
3. How does the goodness of God lead us to repentance? How do we know if we repented?
